New Fire Station Projects at Rice Fergus Miller

Bremerton, WA- Rice Fergus Miller has been selected to design several new fire and emergency services projects:

- City of Seattle Fire Station 17: Renovations and addition to this historic fire station for the City of Seattle, in collaboration with Bassetti Architects;
- City of Seattle Fire Department: Authorship of the a station design manual for the remaining 32 projects included in the City's Fire Facilities Levy Program;
- Port of Seattle Aircraft Rescue & Firefighting Facility (ARFF): Renovations and addition to SeaTac International Airport's fire station; and
- Gig Harbor Fire & Medic One: Improvements to the district's training center and remodels to two stations.

In addition to these new projects, the firm has three fire service projects going out to bid later this month:

- Clallam County Fire District 3 Vehicle Maintenance Facility
- Poulsbo Fire Department Headquarters Remodel; and
- Central Pierce Station 6-7 Sewer Improvements
