Rice Fergus Miller Adds Staff

Bremerton, WA- The downtown Bremerton firm of Rice Fergus Miller has recently added Shao-Lin Cheng, Seth Murray, Gena Lewis and Mike Anson to its staff.

Seth Murray will primarily be assisting on the firm's senior housing projects, including Timber Ridge at Talus and Trillium Woods in Plymouth, MN. He holds a Bachelor of Architecture from Rhode Island School of Design.

Shao-Lin Cheng joined the firm as a Graphic Artist, assisting in the firm's visualization lab, to create 3-D representations of designed spaces for the client/user to experience before the project is built. She is a recent graduate of the University of Oregon.

Interior Designer Gena Lewis brings eight years of experience in designing spaces for dental/medical office clients to the firm's growing interiors staff. Gena holds a Bachelor of Arts Interior Design from Washington State.

Mike Anson holds a Technical Associate Degree in Architectural Drafting from High-Tech Institute in Arizona. He will provide production support to many of the firm's office and emergency service facility projects.

Rice Fergus Miller is located in downtown Bremerton. The firm provides architecture, planning and interior design services throughout the greater Puget Sound region. They can be reached at (360) 377-8773.
